

STOLEN GRACE

What readers said and are saying.

From M and S.W - North Carolina

I bought and read your book, and it so touched my heart! As painful as your journey has been, God took that which was intended for evil and used it for good! You are a good man, and it took so much courage to write this book and help others to see that we truly are just sinners saved by grace, and though we try to do our best, we fail, but God is always by our side to love us, forgive us, and encourage us to lean on Him, when we are weak. You are so loved by so many, and Stan and I are blessed to have served with you and Kaye. ❤️

From F.M Connecticut

- 1.) Congratulations Errol Leslie! I'm ordering it right now. You were the best pastor, good soul and everyone you left in CT misses you. My mom would have loved to read your book. We all loved you. Wishing you much success!
- 2.) Read "Stolen Grace" by Rev. Errol Leslie. He was one of the best pastors; compassionate and dedicated. He gave wonderful sermons, and in the short time he was with us became beloved by the parishioners. He suffered enormously at the hands of the Methodist hierarchy who behaved in a shockingly odious un-Christian like manner in response to a difficulty he became involved in when at a low point in his life. He was allowed not one single comfort during this devastating period of his life.
- 3.) I attended the church he was assigned to at the time of his trial. It was stunning how horribly the United Methodist Church cruelly treated him. They clearly wanted him out at any cost to Rev. Errol Leslie and in fact denied our church any hope of helping or comforting him. He was probably the best minister I'd had the privilege to know.

Thats wonderful, Errol. I'm very proud of you for using a dark night in your journey to deepen your love and commitment to our great 'I AM' I love God too and never will I waiver from this live and commitment. I am sure your book will help many people struggling w/ their own 'dark night' so that they too can come to know God like you do. I will definitely check it out on Amazon.

The UMC has needed a good swift kick in the agenda for years! Looking forward to reading it. I have, I do, and I will support you, my friend.

From M.S Connecticut

Almost half through and have cried in places for the injustice thrown at you from the church. You will always have my support. Please know we are thinking of you and your family.

From C.N - Florida

Congratulations. God certainly uses every block as a means to open another door.

From G.B - Connecticut

Congratulations Pastor Errol, I must get the book. I always thought that the Methodist church conference had lots of problems. I hope everyone gets to read your book to see just how unchristian their ways are. Love and miss your sermons. You were the best Pastor the Vernon Methodist Church ever had. Mom would have loved to read your book. 😊 😊 ❤️ ❤️ !!

From C.A - Massachusetts

- 1.) Buy the book, read it and pass it on. The whole UMC should be aware of this. God bless the Leslie's!
- 2.) I am still reading the book. My heart aches and then breaks and then I get angry over such injustice! Men of God? You should be ashamed of yourselves! You certainly showed no forgiveness. I am sure God is not pleased with any of this. My heart goes out to Rev Leslie! Let those without sin cast the first stone! Shame on you! May God have mercy on your souls.

Good morning brother Errol. Have been able to read the preface and that's exactly my feeling why I am worshiping in the Episcopal church. I thought the people in the district acted like judge. Jury and executioners. There was no Christian empathy. I didn't hear at the end. Let's keep the Leslies in prayer. I just didn't feel I could support the district any longer.

From B.G - Colorado

Honest and genuine account of a sinner and God's Mercy. Life doesn't always work out the way we plan. When we fall God is there to pick us up and forgive, if we turn to him. He shines light into the darkness and brings good out of failure. Thank you for sharing your story, Pastor Errol. God bless you.

From D.G - (Florida)

- 1.) Thanks for the book, I just finished it. I am so proud of you and your family, first by holding on to the Lord and my apology for what you went through. Love you all.
- 2.) I am praying for this book to be a best seller and for the right person to read it and turn into a movie.
- 3.) I applaud Rev Errol E. Leslie the man of God that he is. Please go get this book. Awesome.

My brother! I stayed up late into the night to read through your book and what you have done is write a very comprehensive indictment of the United Methodist Church. You will recall that after I came to the trial, I wrote two letters, one to the judge and one to the prosecutor and I sent them to you to read before I send them. You suggested that I don't send those letters, and I didn't, what your book has done is that it confirms for me what I saw that day neither ethical nor Biblical.

I have come to realize that people like you and I grew up with a naive notion that people who claim to be Christians are godly and ethical. After over forty years living in America, I have come to realize that nothing is further from the truth. They may be religious but nothing about their religion reflects the God of the Bible.

Be blessed and all the best to you and your family!
